FASHION

Fashion is a hypnotic influence which is felt but rarely seen. It is felt readily in the region of the check book by husbands who couldn't tell a death scene from a mother Hubbard. The devious of fashion changes faster than the partners in a square dance. It has subjected the noble beauty and the pleasing hump skirt to its potent hand and has developed a fashion which is about as much as a death. It is considered as vulgar today to wear this in public as it used to be to howl during gun at the opera. This mode has its compensations however. For a few hundred dollars a good dressmaker can turn a stout woman into a gown that makes her look like Camille in the last act and no amount of such ladylike are long on outshining the style is likely to remain with us for quite a spell. Fashion is no respecter of incomes either. It is no more trouble for her to go through a $50,000 income than it is to insert a mellow note in a salary of $12 a week. When ever business is dull fashion invents a hat that looks like an inverted grape basket pastes a French label on it and extends a price that is calculated to make the average husband see stars for a week. As a rule however, fashion is very moderate in her charges. For $32 you can get a modest little toque with fully 40 cents' worth of material in it not counting the labor and the plus

SOME OFFICERS OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE FOR MEDICAL FREEDOM

So many inquiries have been received for information regarding the National League for Medical Freedom that it has seemed worth while to collect such matters as have appeared in The Journal of the American Medical Association and hence it is a pamphlet form. As a picture to this report some biographic information is given regarding certain officers of the league. We reproduce the matter here with as it may help explain due to the many reasons for the opposition shown by this or organization to the American Medical Association and its activities

D. O. Flower, Boston President and one of the founders of the National League for Medical Freedom Flower is ex-president of the R. C.
Flower Drug Co. a mail order medical fake founded by the notorious quack and swindler R. C. Flower.
R. C. Flower is a graduate of the numerous American Health College recently exposed in the Journal in connection with Carson the Kansas City quack. While D. O. Flower was owner and proprietor of the Arena that magazine carried advertisements of such frauds as the F. I. Stephens morphine cure (exposed in The Great American Fraud) the New York Institute of Physicians and Surgeons (put out of business by the government and exposed in Nostrums and Quackery) and the Wagle Tea Trifluene Tablets Clark's Rheumatism Cure etc. etc. etc. later magazine the Twentieth Century retorted that propertors fraud the Oxydones exposed in The Journal and in Nostrums and

C. W. Miller, Waverly, Second vice-president of the National League for Medical Freedom. Miller published a newspaper that carried advertisements of such nostrums as Winslow's Soothing Syrup Doan's Kidney Pills Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Pierce's Favorite Prescription—all of which have been exposed by the American Medical Association. While in the Iowa legislature Miller it is said to have voted against (1) a pure food bill (2) a bill that made the law relating to the sale of poison more rigid (3) an act to regulate the sale of patent medicines (4) a bill to prevent the dealing of samples of patent medicines in private interests. Miller is a case of the death of children who let take a single picture left in yard ed pictures. Miller is also illicit to have from 1000 to 10000 quack ed the use of pure ingredients in his medicine

Reynold I. Bright, Los Angeles
Chairman Southern California Branch of the National League for Medical Freedom. Bright's name appears in connection with the "Natural" Health Products Company which does a mail order business in deformities malformation floating in its attempts to sell its stock to the public the Washington Branch of the National League for Medical Freedom.

Littlefield exploits the Twelve Devitalized Human Builders which are to be used in curing all mental and nervous diseases. He advertises that any organ or member of the body can be reconstructed and its functions re-established by the use of Twelve Devitalized Human Builders. So also can any disease be cured by their use. He gives a mail low of the Society of Science, Intern and Art of London. This so called society is a serio comic fake which issues fellowships with an elaborate diploma of merit thrown in at $5 a piece. The diplomas seem to be much sought after by patent medicine fakers. See the Journal of the American Medical Association May 29 1909 and the book Nostrums and Quackery published by the American Medical Association for further details concerning this fake society

C. S. Carr, M. D. Columbus O.
Member of the Advisory Board of the National League for Medical Freedom. Carr has been in the employ of the Peruna concern for years in his editor of a pseudo medical sheet in which some of the worst medical frauds in the country have been advertised. Many of these frauds have been exposed in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Carr does a mail order business of his own selling what he calls tissue remedies (See the Great American Fraud) published by the American Medical Association for further data on Peruna also

Medical Association Dec. 9 1911

George P. Englehard, Chicago
Member of the Advisory Board of the National League for Medical Freedom. Englehard publishes two journals which have long defended the patent medicine interests and which have carried advertisements of some of the worst frauds in the nostrum business. Both of these publications have been exposed in The Great American Fraud and in the Journal of the American Medical Association

Charles Hubn Minneapolis Member of the Advisory Board of the National League for Medical Freedom. Hubn was president of a cooperative patent medicine conbeen repeatedly exposed in The Journal of the American Medical Association

Member of the Advisory Board of
the National League for Medical Freedom. Stephens was second vice president of the Converse Chemical Company a St. Louis nostrum concern which a few years ago tried to get advertising space in exchange for its treasury stock and offered to give away one share of stock with every bottle of its nostrum. This concern was exposed in The Journal of the American Medical Association January 12 1910 page 141

HOPE

But I would have you know that the head of every man is Christ and the head of the woman is the man and the head of Christ is God.
Every man prying, or prophesying having, his head covered with her head. But every woman that prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head for that is even all one if she were shaken. For if the woman be not covered let her also be shorn but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven let her be covered. For a man indeed ought not to cover his head forasmuch as he is the image and the glory of God but the woman is the glory of man.
For the man is not of the woman but the woman is of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman but the woman for the man. For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels. Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman neither the woman without the man in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man even so is the man also by the woman but all things of God Judge in yourselves. Is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
Doth not even Nature itself teach you that if a man have long hair it is a shame unto him? But if a woman have long hair it is a glory to her for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any man seem to be contentious we have no such custom neither the churches of God. Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not that ye come together not for the better but for the worse

— Paul to the Corinthians

MAIN MONUMENT

Mark of Foot Said to Have Followed Woman's Curse.

CANNOT BE EFFACED

Death of Buckport, Me., Declared Witchcraft Pronounced a Malediction Upon Town's Founder.

Buckport, Me.—"You will soon die for your grave they will erect a stone upon that stone will appear the mark of my foot and long after the accursed race has perished from the earth people will come from far and near to say 'there lies the man who murdered a woman.'"

This is the substance of a curse said to have been uttered in hatred and spite by a woman about to die, a woman of mystery, who cast spells upon her neighbors, and told tales of witchcraft. It was a curse given by a woman who knew she was about to die, and who in her wrath desired vengeance against Col. Jonathan Buck, the founder of Buckport, who, as the story goes, caused this woman to be put to death as a witch.

Some years later a monument was erected in the memory of Col. Jonathan Buck in the Buck cemetery, about a half mile south of the present center of the town. It is a granite shaft about 16 feet high, standing on the usual base stones, and it bears the following inscription:

COL. JONATHAN BUCK
The founder of Buckport
A. D. 1796
Born in H. 1791
Died 1861

imprint on Buck Monument

Just inside the iron fence surrounding the whole burying ground, one can almost reach through the iron fence and touch the outline of a sleek, ink-shaped foot which is plainly etched on the surface of the stone. It appeared faintly not long after the monument was put in place and day by day it is said to have grown more distinct.

This striking sketch was the subject of much comment and people for miles around gathered to view the strange shape on the stone. It is said that members of the family have tried in vain to efface the mysterious foot by cutting into the face of the monument, but each time the figure gradually resumed its old shape.

Buckport residents are divided in their version of the legend, many holding that the woman who uttered the curse had been sentenced to death by Jonathan Buck and had been kept in the dungeon of the jail in mark of a while there content that the woman in the cage was an Indian maiden who after being courted by Jonathan Buck was snatched away and when he refused to marry her she cursed him and all of his descendants and had foretold the appearance of a strange sign on the tombstone.

Pals With His Corpse
Casper, Wyo.—For more than two weeks after Fred Smith had fallen over a cliff to his death near the town of Casper, a dog faithfully stood watch near the body, which almost perished from lack of food. Smith's body was found in the Sheep Canyon 10 miles west of Casper by Frank Long, who came up at the almost starved dog and dug the former still alive and in a bad way.

Fastidious Lucy!
Finlay, O.—Her three little boys had colored Miss Lucy's hair twenty-nine years old and she used silver polish on the hair. She allowed some of the girls to be in a serious condition.

WISE SAYINGS OF HORACE.

Thus the richer man is always an obstacle to one who is hastening on his way.

Glory drags in her dazzling car the obscure as closely fettered as those of public birth.

The crowd bids me but I applaud myself at home, when I contemplate my money in my treasure chest.

Now it is then that no one is content with his condition, whether reason gave him or chance threw it his way.

But a great majority of mankind are. No sum is enough because you are outwined in proportion to what you possess.

If length of time makes poems better as it does wine, I would fain know how many years will stamp a value upon my writings.

Hence it is that we rarely find a man who can say that he has lived happy and content with his past life can retire from the world like a satisfied guest.

COTTOLENE

Cottolene, the perfect shortening, is a cooking fat of about the consistency of butter. It is neutral in taste, practically without odor, and is composed of but two ingredients—carefully selected cotton oil, refined by our own exclusive process and the choicest beef suet. It contains nothing else, not even salt.

Cottolene is better than lard—better than butter. Lard made from hog fat which is often impure and always indigestible. Cottolene on the contrary is essentially a vegetable product, contains not an ounce of hog fat and is clean and pure from misconception to completion. In cakes and fine pastry Cottolene can be substituted for butter with excellent results as for frying it is better. Cottolene is also more economical than either lard or butter—13 less being required.

As further evidence of its superiority over all other cooking fats Cottolene was awarded the Grand Prize (highest award possible) at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, held in St. Louis in 1904 as were also cakes and pastry baked with Cottolene. Gold Medals representing highest awards in each case were also granted Cottolene at the Charleston Exposition in 1902, Paris Exposition in 1900 and at the Chicago World Fair in 1893.

Cottolene is packed only in sealed tins of special design which are absolutely air tight and protect the contents not only from all odors of coal oil, codfish, etc., so common in the average grocery store but also from dust, dirt and other contaminations to which goods sold in bulk—such as lard—are frequently exposed.

There are many imitations, but remember—no imitation was ever as good as the original. There is only one Cottolene. Take no substitute.

Made only by

THE N. K. FAIRBANKS COMPANY

This contest will be conducted by Mr. W. H. Estes of The N. K. Fairbanks Co. of Chicago, Ill. Mr. Estes will call on every home in the city and gladly explain the merits of COTTOLENE. Should Mr. Estes fail to see you Phone either of the above Grocers for COTTOLENE.

Don't Forget the Date Friday, Jan. 12th. 1912.

Cakes will be on exhibit at The NIX DRUG CO. from 3 P. M. to 5 P. M. Every body in the City is urged to come.
